

Apostrophes and Plurals

Read the following sentences very carefully. Copy and add the possessive apostrophes, underline the PLURAL NOUNS and create a contraction in each sentence.

1. Sarahs pencils are all sharp and they are ready to use.
2. I enjoy listening to Sophies stories, hopefully she will read them to the class.
3. I am very jealous of Peters stickers because he has filled the new Match Attack album.
4. As I was going out to play, I tripped over Hannahs trainers, she should not have left them on the floor.
5. Georgia, who is always talking about her XBox, enjoyed hearing about Tias new games.
6. Bobs guinea pigs are very naughty and shall not be given a treat today!
7. Bens books took up so much space on his desk, he could not do his written work.
8. Janes cakes look delicious, she is very talented at baking.

Apostrophes and Plurals

Read the following sentences very carefully. Copy and add the possessive apostrophes, underline the PLURAL NOUNS and create a contraction in each sentence.

1. Sarahs pencils are all sharp and they are ready to use.
2. I enjoy listening to Sophies stories, hopefully she will read them to the class.
3. I am very jealous of Peters stickers because he has filled the new Match Attack album.
4. As I was going out to play, I tripped over Hannahs trainers, she should not have left them on the floor.
5. Georgia, who is always talking about her XBox, enjoyed hearing about Tias new games.
6. Bobs guinea pigs are very naughty and shall not be given a treat today!
7. Bens books took up so much space on his desk, he could not do his written work.
8. Janes cakes look delicious, she is very talented at baking.