

English Overview

This week in English we will be learning poems and writing tongue twisters.

Yr 1 Must be able to - Know how to say Twas the Night Before Christmas, and how to say a tongue twister. To attempt to write their own simple format tongue twister with support - (I.E. _____ had a _____.

The _____ ,

The _____ ,

How _____ did _____ ?)

Should be able to - Know how to say Twas the Night Before Christmas, and how to say a tongue twister. To write a simple tongue twister.

Could be able to - Know how to say Twas the Night Before Christmas by heart, and how to say a tongue twister. To write some simple tongue twisters.

YR 2 - Must be able to - Know how to say Twas the Night Before Christmas by heart, and how to say a tongue twister. To write some simple tongue twisters in the format above.

Should be able to - Know how to say Twas the Night Before Christmas by heart, and how to say a tongue twister. To write some multi-verse tongue twisters in the format above.

Could be able to - Know how to say Twas the Night Before Christmas by heart, and how to say a tongue twister. To write some multi-verse tongue twisters in the format above that all keep the same alliterative sound.

In grammar: Year 1 activity - Write sentences (pick a different topic each week.) Or can try to write some simple sentences using the alliteration powerpoint.

Year 2 - See the alliterative powerpoint. Go through the PowerPoint and complete the activity at the end of writing alliterative sentences.

For comprehension they will be looking at "London after the great fire".