

In October all the children had the opportunity to visit the Book Fair.

We are very grateful to parents who bought books for their children and we made enough commission to buy books celebrating diversity for the classrooms.

Here are some children from the Reception Class showing their favourite books.

